The Douglas Steamship Company's new steamer Hector arrived here from home yesterday under command of Captain Hunter.

We hear that the Eurasians of the colony have obtained a grant of a piece of land on the Shantung Road, front the Government, which is their intention to convert into a cemetery for the sole use of the community.

The Norddeutscher Lloyd steamer Preussen, which arrived here yesterday, made a capital run out. She delivered her mail here from London within 28 days and that from Berlin in 27 days. She made the passage from Singapore in 4 days.The Douglas Steamship Company's new steamer Hector arrived here from home yesterday under command of Captain Hunter.The Daily News says that the Preussen had obtained a grant of a piece of land on the Shantung Road, front the Government, which is their intention to convert into a cemetery for the sole use of the community.The Norddeutscher Lloyd steamer Preussen, which arrived here yesterday, made a capital run out. The Queen's birthday. Yankee absence; disappearance of the Mexican in misery, and increase in the number of stars in the hated American flag."

THE QUEEN OF HAWAII IN ENGLAND.
LONDON, 13th June.

The unexpected visit of the Queen of Hawaïi is not a cause of manifested delight at court, as there has been a deal of trouble about her presence, and it has not been without a warm protest that she has been granted the official rank of sovereign, which, of course, places her above most of the royalties both home and foreign. The Queen of the Sandwich Islands is visiting New Zealand, and has just arrived by J. O. Howard Taylor. This gentleman is the owner of the manor of Easting Hill, which it appears is held by the son of chief butler to her Majesty Queen Victoria, and he seems to have carried out the duties of his office, for I read, that "when the carriage approached the residence Mr. Taylor personally opened the gate, and that having done so, he placed his hand upon the door knocker, putting on the butler's badge, awaited his Majesty on the steps." What a butler's badge!

THE EX-EMPEROR CHARLOTTE.

LONDON, 13th June.

A correspondent, writing from Brussels, gives some interesting particulars concerning the conditions of the unfortunate Empress Charlotte, who became insane after the execution of her husband, Maximilian, Emperor of Mexico, at the Chateau de Boulogne. The correspondent says the Empress who was walking in the grove of the chateau. She was accompanied by two maids of honour, her page and two footmen. The maids of honour, who belonged to the Belgian aristocracy, are some twelve in number. The Empress, in her walk, passed very near to the correspondent. He was able to verify by actual observation the account of the condition of her condition which had been circulated during the past year. He says that he found that she had not changed much. Her figure is slightly stouter and she walks in a bold, impulsive manner, looking vacantly about as if her attention was fixed upon some distant object. She walks with short steps and without pausing. She passes through groups of the most exquisite flowers without even noticing them. She stopped and took a look of pleasure and satisfaction at the general welcome given her by the group of pea birds. She looked at them for a long time, then she turned abruptly into the drawing-room, where one of the maids of honour played for her an air from "Mignon." She listened to this with pleasure, beating time with her hand. She then went with the page and two footmen, music and incense, to the day-lighting ceremony of unknown to her condition a year ago. She is now 47 years of age. While her vanity is now cured, her physicians are beginning to hope she will recover within a short time her full mental powers.

PRINCE ALBERT VICTOR.

LONDON, 13th June.

Prince Albert Victor, eldest son of the Prince of Wales, will attend the coronation of King Edward VII in 1902, and will take part in the service to be held at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, on June 23rd, and will on that occasion be decorated with the Order of St. Patrick.

A COPY OF THE BARTHOLOMEW STATE.

LONDON, 13th June.

Bartoldi has completed, on the ground of the American exhibition, a diagram of part of New York representing, in miniature, a duplicate of the state of "Liberty Enlightening the World."

THE FRANCIS IN HONG-KONG.

THE HAGUE, 14th June.

Parliament has passed a bill providing for the temporary extension of the electoral franchise, pending a complete revision of the constitution. The bill raises the number of voters from 130,000 to 300,000.

A TERRIFIC HAULSTORM IN BOMBAY.

PALITROPOLIS, 14th June.

Hailstones, stranger than stones, and weighing over one pound each, recently fell in the districts of Ailes and Carnabat, between Adrianople and Shunluk, on the south slope of the Balkan mountains, East Roumelia. The hailstones destroyed harvests, killed many labourers and cattle in the fields and pierced the roofs of houses like bullet.

FRANCE AND AUSTRIA.

SOUTHERN, 15th June.

The Paris correspondent says a treaty has been drawn between France and Austria by which King John refuses to allow any Italian factories on the Red Sea littoral and disputes the right of Italy to places already occupied, while France subserves to the Ethiopian conquest at Jerusalem, which supplies Abyssinia with Coptic clergy.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

DUBLIN, 14th June.

It is reported that the Government intends to prosecute Michael Davitt and Joseph Edward Cox, Nationalist member of Parliament, for their conduct in inciting the Bodily tenants to resist evictions.

A farm servant named Hurley was shot and killed last night by moonlight near Tuam, County Kerry. Eleven bullets pierced his body.

BERLIN, 14th June.

The conviction of the members of the French Patriotic Lodge, now being tried at Leipzig, is considered certain.

BELGRADE, 14th June.

Mr. Blaize, the new member of Servia, is a man of strong pro-Russian sympathies. His elevation is considered a shock to Austria and a gain for Russia in the Balkans.

THE GERMAN MAIL.

LONDON, 13th June.

The Norddeutsche Lloyd steamer Preussen, with the German mail of the 14th June, arrived here yesterday. We are indebted to Messrs. Molchers & Co., the agents, for late copies of London papers, from which we take the following items:

FRENCH W.B. PREPARATIONS.

LONDON, 13th June.

In the French Chamber on Saturday General Ferrer, the Minister of War, said it behaved France to diminish the differences which now exist between her army and that of Germany. It was agreed that a plan should be prepared, if she were attacked, not to march directly against the House of Commons at Portman Square.

LONDON, 13th June.

More than three hundred members of the House of Commons were included in Lord Charles Beresford's second personally conducted party to Portsmouth Dockyard. Several vessels were inspected, and after luncheon the members witnessed a boat attack, a landing in force, and an exciting sham-fight on the water.

FOREIGN PILOTS IN MEXICAN WATERS.

LONDON, 13th June.

In the Queen's Bench Division on Saturday, a rule nisi was granted, calling upon the Trinity House to show cause why they should not renew the pilotage certificate of a foreign captain. The reason the Trinity House certificate was withheld was alleged to be the objection of the Government in the event of war, preventing foreign pilots to pilot enemy's vessels in British waters.

ATTACK ON A BRITISH MAN-O'-WAR'S BOAT.

BY A SLAVE DHOW.

ZANZIBAR, 13th June.

The cruising launch of her Majesty's corvette Turquoise has been attacked by a slave dhow, one British officer and five men being wounded in the action which ensued. The dhow however, was sunk by the British, and all slaves were rescued.

DUEL BETWEEN M. CLÉMENTEAU AND M. FOUCHE.

LONDON, 13th June.

A few days are the National, a Moderate paper and the Justice engaged in a controversy which ended in M. Paul Douay sending two friends to the editor of the former. M. Paul Fouche, who gave an apology and an apology. The editor however, who broke off the consequences of the following note from M. Clémenteaum to M. Fouche.—Paris, June 10, 1887.—My colleague and friend M. Paul Douay, personally insulted by you, has resolved to send you his seconds.
